

RE: COACHING POSITIONS

Thank You to all who have applied for a coaching positions at the SPWHL. The coaching selection process for the 2011/2012 hockey season is almost complete. Fortunately, more applications were received than anticipated. Unfortunately, this process can not accommodate all applicants. The selection process involved the information gathering of all applicants, parent and league director evaluations, and in some cases a personal interview with the applicant. This year, a slight change occurred, the applicants were assessed by a point system. The last phase of the selection process consisted of a final screening, a vote and approval by the SPWHL executive board. As previously mentioned, the process was quite difficult and could not accommodate all of the qualified applicants. The SPWHL is asking everyone to remain involved, let's be here for the kids!

The following is a list of approved coaches for this hockey season:

Tom Thumb (8 teams)

Scott McPherson, Chris Thibodeau, Mike Leswick, Blair Mathewson

The SPWHL requires additional coaches in the four highlighted divisions listed above. If you are interested, please submit your name for one of the specific divisions to the SPWHL executive. ASAP. At the conclusion of every selection process, coaches decline the opportunity to coach after being approved by the executive; whether it is because of a change in a professional situation, family circumstances or their child playing at a higher level than expected. If /When this happens, the SPWHL executive board will approve their replacement as soon as practicable.
